

ibigawa rock

Ibigawa rock is a type of rock from the Ibigawa region of Japan, with a greyish hue it is often highly fissured and sometimes carved artificially by acid. Ideal for rock plantings.

internode

Internode is the length between sets of buds on a plant.

ishitsuki

Ishitsuki is a Japanese term for root-over-rock style